Global Economy

- ✓ While inflation trends downwards, real GDP growth is slowing in some of the most resilient economies
- ✓ With Asia being the centre of gravity for economic order, it could likely contribute to two-thirds of the global growth for 2024

Equity Markets

- ✓ MSCI world equity index rose by 4.2% in February, with a 4.1% gain in AEs, as earnings proved were higher than expected
- ✓ MSCI for EMEs rose by 4.6%, as capital flows into EMEs surged and China witnessed a strong rally

Policy Rates

- ✓ Most AE central banks held policy rates constant, while some EME central banks were in their easing paths
- ✓ China witnessed reductions in key lending rates. Conversely, Japan ended its eight-year period of negative interest rates

Fixed Income

- ✓ February saw government bond yields of AEs climb from their January lows, as central banks pushed back expectations of early rate cuts
- ✓ In the forex market, the US Dollar index appreciated by 0.9% (M-O-M) in February

Geopolitics

- ✓ The ongoing war in the Middle East, escalation of US-China tensions over Taiwan, and hostilities in the Red Sea pose geopolitical risks
- ✓ BlackRock's Geopolitical Risk Indicator stood at 19-month highs in February

Economic Scenario

- ✓ After a slight moderation in January, economic activity in India gained momentum in February 2024
- ✓ Backed by robust momentum in the manufacturing sector, the real GDP growth in Q3 of FY 2024 stood at 8.4%, a six-quarter high

Financial Markets

- ✓ India received the highest equity inflows among emerging market peers in 2023-24 (April to February)
- ✓ Within equity; consumer services, automobiles, healthcare, and capital goods were the leading FPI recipient sectors

Growth Estimates

- ✓ Fitch Ratings has revised India's real GDP growth forecast for FY 2025 to 7.0%, a strong 50 bps revision from 6.5% earlier
- ✓ Net FPI inflows during 2023-24 amounted to $40.5 bn, till 14th March, the highest since 2015-16

bps - basis points [1 bp = 0.01%]

Foreign Affairs

- ✓ S. Jaishankar reveals India's intent to strengthen India-ASEAN relations during his two-day visit to Malaysia
- ✓ Ukraine's Minister of Foreign Affairs made his maiden visit to India to seek a resolution to the two-year old Russia-Ukraine conflict

Future Outlook

- ✓ As India's PFCE remains low, demand in small towns is driving growth across the consumer sector
- ✓ Research indicates an average growth outlook in the FMCG sector (next six months), but a robust medium term outlook in premium consumer businesses

PFCE - Private Final Consumption Expenditure
